

A NEVADA EXHIBIT.

Would it not be a good idea for Nevada to wake up and begin to make itself felt on the question of natural productions.

The APPEAL's plan would be to hire a building every Fall, in San Francisco, and there make a rousing exhibit of Nevada's fruits, cereals, ores, etc.

If the legislature would make the proper appropriation the State developers could go right down into the enemies camp and make such a showing of Nevada's natural wealth as to weary the bloviating Californians.

Have a big building crammed full of Nevada exhibits, with a sign hung out that would loom up to people a mile away, and then plaster every dead wall in town with big posters, in five colors, guiding the Eastern visitors to the spot where Nevada's richness could be exemplified.

Shower everybody with pamphlets and circulars setting forth the incomparable wonders of our climate and we would soon be able to head the boom our way.

Appropriate $10,000 for this purpose and place it in the hands of a live Commission, not old fossils and has been, and its influence would soon be felt all over the sage-brush.

The time is now at hand when Nevada must join the procession of progress and take its stand as a live enterprising State. The old Silurian element here must be kicked aside and shelved, both in business and politics, along with the scrimping economists and old shell-headed croakers.

Every other State and Territory West of the Rockies is fighting in the commercial ring for supremacy, and all are putting their best strength into the struggle except Nevada. We must stop lying along side the well-trodden path of Empire, like a mud turtle in the sun. We must get up and start along the road on the run if we ever expect to get anywhere.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

—Intelligence has been received at Victoria, B. C., that Rev. Dr. Sheldon, Mrs. R. Cunningham and two Indians were drowned in the Skeena river on the 20th of February.

—The Anti-Boes ticket at Sacramento made a clean sweep Tuesday. There were 4,444 votes cast. A grand jollification meeting was held at the Pavilion on Wednesday night.

—Advices from Phoenix, A. T., state that Colonel Johnson, of the Gazette, went to the office of the Advance, Monday, and gave a thrashing to General Birt, the Advance editor, the cause being reflections on Johnson which appeared in the Advance.

—The Grand Jury of Washoe has administered some severe reprimands to its county officers, but they amount to nothing except telling the officers not to do so any more. —The water flume which supplies the Asylum at Reno has been knocked out, and the other night the Asylum caught fire. State property in Reno runs many risks.
